REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The presently claimed invention overcomes the prior art of record for multiple reasons and reason presented in applicant's appeal brief received 8/27/07. As the applicant defines the presently claimed invention it the present invention redirects traffic to cluster by spoofing the destination and requires it to be directed to a receiving cashed system (pg 2). Additionally the present invention specific that the traffic handling system specifics to which cache system based upon the data received which applicant has defined as the destination field (pg 8). Also the present invention requires that the redirection occur in a router using the traffic information to each cache system, and redirecting by using the destination IP address and port(pg 2). The prior art also does not teach, determining how to redirect data to the destination cache based upon the data, the prior art use a single method of forwarding the data to a destination cache. Also the redirection between the traffic handling systems and the cache system are to a group of caches not individual local cache system as in the prior art. Additionally applicant's invention redirects selected IP addressed to selected cache systems (pg8). For the reason presented above in addition to those presented in the appeal brief the presently claimed invention interpreted in light of the specification, especially those portion cited in the appeal brief overcome the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
